Letter from Laura Wheeler to W. E. B. Du Bois, October 18, 1923

Noting her plans to deliver a certain set of pictures the week following, and cryptically mentioning something she "has to do" in Brooklyn of which she "can't tell just now."

Dear Dr. Dr. Bois: Cheyney on the eighteenth

I received your note this morning and hasten to say that I have the pictures in mind and partly on paper. Lesser, the 25 1/2 is one made from today.
I shall probably deliver them in person on that day or the next.
I will be in Brooklyn. The end.

Laura Wheeler
the week. I have something to do here and can't tell just when. My Brooklyn address is changed being now 529 a Macon Street. I want to spend a bit of time at Helen's this summer. Sometimes I'll be in Bklyn and sometimes to Washington. Very sincerely yours, Emma.
